"OLD SLOOP" CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH,
ROCKPORT, CAPE ANN, MASS.

The "Old Sloop" received its name during the War of 1812. It was fired on by a British Frigate, which mistook it for an enemy sloop. The Church was built in 1803. Rev. Ebenezer Cleveland, the "Fighting Parson" of Revolutionary War fame, was its first pastor.

NATURAL COLOR by Mike Roberts BERKELEY CALIF.

1965

Published for Rockport Post Card Co., Rockport, Mass.

We're enjoying ourselves here as usual. The air is brisk - (no swimming for me) Bi

Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson
Winter Street
Keene
New Hampshire

MA1478—Color photo by Bud ~~Curtis~~